

TEN INNINGS AND A DRAW.

NEW YORK AND BROOKLYN PEAT AN EXCITING GAME.

Ward Pace Started in Right Field—The Philadelphians Took Another Game from the Yankees—The Other League Games—Cleveland, Baltimore, and St. Louis.

The draw battle between the New York and Baltimore regulars resulted benefit both teams. While they remain on even terms as to percentage, they have both moved up a peg in the race, being now in sixth place. The defeat of the Cincinnati by the St. Louis team is responsible for the change. The Cleveland and Baltimore continue on their mad career upwards, as they have had no trouble in administering hollow-eyed defeats to the Chicago and Washington respectively. The Philadelphians won another game from the champions, and pushed them down quite a bit. Rain prevented the Pittsburgh-Louisville game at Pittsburgh. The results:

New York, 3; Brooklyn, 3; Philadelphia, 3; Baltimore, 3; Washington, 3; Cleveland, 3; St. Louis, 3; Cincinnati, 3; Pittsburgh, rain.
